Imagine you need to leave your home today and live on an island alone. If you can only bring three things with you, what will you bring?

If I need to live on an island and I can only bring three things with me, I will bring the following things. First, I will bring a water bottle because we need water to survive. If I do not have enough water, I will drink sea water.

Next, we also need food to survive. I will bring some snacks because I will feel hungry. I love eating snacks so I will bring a bar of chocolate, a packet of potato chips and a loaf of bread.

In addition, I will bring a mobile phone too. I can make a phone call when I am in danger. The people in Hong Kong will help me. I will use my phone to play games too because I will be bored when I live alone.

Finally, I will use my hands to catch the fish and build a house. It is funny. However, I don't want to live alone on the island because it is scary at night. Maybe there will be a monster on the island. I would like to live in my own house.
