Kelly Had A Magic Brush

Kelly likes drawing. One day, her mother gives her a magic brush. It is colourful. She feels cheerful.

Kelly goes back to her room. She takes some paper and colour. First she draws a dress because she wants to have a new colourful dress. Then she wears it and says, " Nice and good!" Next she draws a pink and yellow little bag. Then she puts her things into the bag and says, "It is good for me!"

At last she draws a pair of big white wings because she is lazy. She doesn't like walking. She draws the wings and puts them on her back.

Then Kelly flies with her wings. Her friend sees her. She asks, "Can you draw the wings for me?" "Yes!" says Kelly.

Kelly draws a pair of wings for her friend. Finally they fly back home.

They are very cheerful.
