My Lovely Rabbit

Today was my birthday. My dad gave me a lovely rabbit as the birthday gift. I felt so excited. I couldn't wait to take care of my little rabbit.

I fed the rabbit on some carrots. It seemed very happy. Then I let the rabbit go out of the cage. It ran around the living room. I sat on the sofa and saw it run around. When the rabbit was tired. It went back to the cage carefully and took a rest.

In the afternoon, I went out to have a picnic with my friend. I took my rabbit out too. I let my friend see my rabbit. She thought it was cute too. Then, I placed the rabbit in the cage. But when we were having the picnic, my rabbit got out. It played on the grass. Suddenly, a dog came to us and barked at my rabbit. I didn't know about it, so I didn't take any action. After we finished our lunch, we saw that my rabbit was gone. I was frightened. We found everywhere but I didn't find it.

I went home sadly. When I got home, I was surprised that my rabbit was in the living room! I ran to my rabbit and hugged it. Next time, I will look after my rabbit carefully.
