My Lovely Rabbit

Last Sunday was my 11th birthday. My dad gave me a big gift. I thought, "What is it?" When Dad opened it, oh! It was a lovely rabbit! I felt excited!

I loved my rabbit very much because I enjoyed feeding it on carrots and watching it run around in my bedroom. I also liked it playing in the straw with a ball. Don't you think it is interesting?

The next morning, I went on a picnic with my rabbit and my best friend, Kelly. Kelly also brought with her dog. However, Kelly's dog did not like rabbits, so I locked my rabbit in its cage. After playing for a while, Kelly and I went off the cage! Kelly's dog barked at my rabbit immediately, so Kelly's said, "Stop barking!" Suddenly, Kelly's dog grabbed my rabbit and ran away! Oh no!

Luckily, a man saw what happened and helped me save my rabbit. I felt so happy and thanked him very much.
