Kelly's Interesting Family

Kelly likes drawing. She always wants to have a brush but she doesn't have money to buy one because her dad and mum have been killed by the bad king.

One day she sees a brush on the floor. She picks it up and draws a jumping pen. The pen jumps out and sits next to her. She says, "You can be my family." Next she draws a flying book. The book flies out and lands on her head. She says, "You can be my family too." At last, she draws a running apple. The apple runs out and stops next to her. She says, "You can also be my family."

The bad king sees Kelly. He wants Kelly and her brush. "Draw me a money maker!" says the king. "I will not draw it!" says Kelly. The bad king puts Kelly in the prison. Kelly draws a door. The running apple, the flying book and the jumping pen go away with her.

Kelly draws more interesting things and they live happily ever after.
