Mark and the monster

Everyone in the village thought Mark was very strong. Some thought he was as strong as an ox; some thought he could lift things such as trees, lions and even large rocks.

One day, an ugly and scary monster came to the village. Whenever the villagers went to the well to get some water, the monster would always scare them away. The villagers were very scared so they asked Mark to kill the monster. The villager chief told Mark that the monster lived in a dark cave near a well.

So Mark set off to the cave. Suddenly, he stepped on a stick which made a loud 'crack' sound. The monster woke up and roared! Mark was so scared that he was trembling with fear. Mark quickly ran back to the village and hid in his house.

Suddenly, a fairy appeared, Mark quickly asked her if she had anything that could help him with his problem. The fairy just told him to believe in himself. As quick as a flash, the fairy turned into a bird and flew away.

After a few minutes of preparation, Mark bravely set off to fight against the monster. When Mark got to the cave, the monster roared once again. But Mark didn't run away this time, he believed in himself—believed that he could win. The battle was intense, but the monster made a wrong move and with one final swing, the monster fell to the ground. The battle was over.

In the end, Mark was a hero. He became famous and was known for his fierce battles. He even married a beautiful woman and became the chief of the village.
