

My Lovely Rabbit

Today was my birthday. Dad bought a rabbit for me. The rabbit was white as a lamb. I named the rabbit "Snowflake". I was very surprised because the rabbit was very lovely.

I fed Snowflakes twice a day. After school, I always gave Snowflake some fruit and vegetables. Also, I needed to give Snowflake some fresh water. Snowflake was very strong. She was never sick. I thought Snowflake ate a lot of healthy food. Snowflake liked running around. She liked jumping around my legs too!

One day, my best friend and I had a picnic. My best friend brought her dog and I also brought Snowflake in the park. When we were eating, I opened the cage and Snowflake got out. But my best friend's dog barked at Snowflake suddenly. I thought my best friend's dog did not like Snowflake. I put back Snowflake into the cage.

At last, I took Snowflake home. She was scared. My dad was very angry. I told my dad that I would not do that again. I felt so sorry about it.
