Sunny

Today my family and I went hiking at a hiking trail. The weather was very sunny and I was very excited. When we were walking up the hiking trail, we took some photos. We saw a dark cave, but my mum said, 'We are not going into that dark cave but we can go to the lake.'

Therefore, we went to the lake and saw a lot of children were there. I said, 'I see a lot of flowers but the little girl is picking the flowers. Also, I see a boy feeding the fishes but he is not allowed to feed them!' Then we walked back down the hiking trail and we saw a beautiful sunset. We were happy. We all went back home and talked about the day.
