

My Lovely Rabbit

Last Sunday was my birthday, Dad had a fabulous gift for me - a rabbit! It was in a cage when I saw it. It was cute. Its hair was so clean and smooth. I decided to call it 'Sharpay'. It had about 20 teeth and two teeth were very big. It was funny. I fed it three carrots a day. And of course, I gave it a bowl of water. It ran around the house. It was very fast!

Yesterday, I brought it to the park for picnic with my friends. But my friend, Ryan, brought his dog too! Oh no! The dog, Troy, chased after Sharpay! I ran to it and I saved it. I caught Troy and waited till Ryan came. Ryan said sorry to me and Sharpay.

After that day, I know I will never bring Sharpay to the park again.
