Saturday

Today my family and I went hiking. It was sunny there. We were very excited. First we went to a cave. It was very dark. We had a lot of fun there. Then we went to the lake. My parents wanted to look at the flowers but I wanted to see the fishes. Therefore, my parents let me see the fishes.

Suddenly, I saw two kids. One was picking the flowers and the other one was feeding the fishes. I used my most angry voice to stop the kids who were doing bad deeds. They were so scared that they stopped and ran away. I was glad that I could stop the naughty kids.

I told my parents what happened and also I was hungry. They were delighted with what I did so they rewarded me a big hamburger. The hamburger was so tasty. I ate so fast that my parents were very surprised.
