

My best friend's name is Hazel. She is seven years old. She has small eyes and a small mouth. She also has glasses.

She is polite. She says 'good morning'. Her mother is a housewife. She looks after the family. Her father is a businessman. He does business.

I like to go to the park with her.