Today my family and I went hiking. We were very excited. We saw a hiking trail. It was beautiful. Mum took a lot of photos.

Then, we visited the cave. It was big and beautiful. Mum took photos again. We played inside. There were a lot of children. Next, we went to the lake. There were also a lot of children. They played and sang. A girl was picking flowers! We could not pick flowers. I saw it so I was very angry. I warned the girl and she stopped picking flowers.

At night, we were very tired so we went home. I sat on the sofa and slept.
