Sunny

Today my family and I went to Happy Zoo. We were lucky because the weather was sunny.

Then, we went to the tiger's cage. The tiger was very scary. After that we visited the elephant and the panda. They were very interesting. Next, we went to the duck's pond. I threw stones into the pond. The zoo keeper shouted, "How naughty you are! You scared the ducks!"

At last, my family needed to pay one thousand dollars. My family was angry with me.
