A day out with my family

The weather was sunny today. It was a great day to have a barbecue in the country park. My family and I wanted to have a barbecue in Sai Kung Country Park but it was too far from our home so we went to Ma On Shan Country Park. We went there by taxi because it was fast.

When we arrived at the park, I felt super excited. We went to the barbecue site. It was huge! Dad made a fire and I took out the food from my backpack. A lot of monkeys smelt the bananas. They climbed up the tree that was near us. At that time, we didn't know that there were some hungry monkeys watching the bananas next to us.

A few minutes later, they started to steal the bananas. I saw it. I shouted, "Mum and Dad, see! The monkeys are stealing our bananas! I hate monkeys!" "Go! Chase them!" Dad shouted. We tried to chase them but they ran too fast! We couldn't catch them. Then I saw a little monkey. He stood on the table. I thought it wanted to steal other food there so I shouted, "Go away!" The monkey put down a banana and ran away. I thought monkeys were the naughtiest animals in the world. But this monkey gave me back a banana. It seemed they were not so bad.
