

By H.A. Rey

Book Report

Book Title: Curious George catches a train

This story is about a curious monkey called George. One morning, George and the man with the yellow hat were at the train station. They were going on a trip to the country. When the man went to buy tickets, George saw a stationmaster moving numbers and letters on a big board. George wanted to help. However, he made a lot of troubles on it. Meanwhile, he saw a little boy's toy rolling towards the tracks. The boy ran after it. When the little boy was in danger, George saved him. The little boy's father was glad.

I like the story very much because although George made a lot of troubles on the big board, he saved the little boy. At last, they were all happy. I learned that if we help each other, we will be happy and proud of ourselves. I will help people who are in need. Then I will be a joyful person like George.

Leung Ka Man

5A